

Music with Mummy

On Friday's the children in Kindergarten and Pre-School have a visit from Sarah who delivers Music with Mummy sessions. The children enjoy singing and dancing with Sarah and they are provided with toys and props to use whilst the music is playing. The songs range from slow to fast paced and the children keep up well. They remember familiar songs from one week to the next and say thank you to Sarah before she leaves.